ALLIANCE FOR CHILDREN

MISSION/HISTORY

Alliance For Children is the children's advocacy center serving all of Tarrant County. Since 1992, over 65,000 children have benefited from Alliance For Children's teamed investigations and coordinated approach. Alliance For Children is a nonprofit organization that operates child-friendly centers located in Arlington, Fort Worth, Hurst, and Lakeside. It is our mission to protect Tarrant County children from child abuse through teamed investigations, healing services and community education.

Alliance For Children is a fully accredited member of the National Children's Alliance[®], a membership association of over 700 children's advocacy centers, and is a founding member of Children's Advocacy Centers[™] of Texas.

Alliance For Children is the only Tarrant County non-profit organization involved directly in the protection from child abuse through coordinated and teamed investigations with local law enforcement agencies, Cook Children's Medical Center, JPS Health Network, Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney's Office, Tarrant County Juvenile Services, and the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services.

At Alliance For Children, the goal is to minimize the trauma of abuse so that children and families can begin to heal.
